DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed 5/10/2007 has been entered. Claims 1-37 are pending in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 5/10/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant states in the Remarks that the present application was filed before either the '579 application other '493 application, the nonstatutory obviousness-double patenting rejection is improper and should be withdrawn.

In response to Applicant's argument that the terminal disclaimer should be filed in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321 (c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1, 2, 3, 10, 11, 12, are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 2, 3 of copending Application No. 10/695,579. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1, 2, 3, 10, 11, 12 of the instant application merely broadens the scope of the claims 1, 2, 3 of the copending Application No. 10/695,579 by eliminating the elements and their functions of claims 1, 2, 3, 10, 11, 12 of the instant Application. The preamble of the instant Application recites a data transmission apparatus and a method having maximum diversity gain in a mobile communication system while the co-pending application recites transmitting a sequence for channel estimation in a mobile communication system. Therefore, it would to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time invention as made to realize that both inventions used to perform transmitting signal in mobile communication system. It has been held that the omission an element and its function is an obvious expedient if the remaining elements perform the same function as before.

In re Karlson, 136 USPQ 184 (CCPA). Also note Ex parte Rainu, 168 USPQ 375 (Bd.App.1969); omission of a reference element whose function is not needed would be obvious to one skilled in the art.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

5. Claims 19, 20, 21, 29, 30, 31, are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 15, 16, 17 of copending Application No. 10/695,493. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 19, 20, 21, 29, 30, 31 of the instant application merely broadens the scope of the claims 15, 16, 17 of the co-pending Application No. 10/695,493 by eliminating the elements and their functions of claims 19, 20, 21, 29, 30, 31 of the instant Application. The preamble of the instant Application recites a data reception apparatus and a method having maximum diversity gain in a mobile communication system while the co-pending application recites receiving data in a mobile communication system which receives through N reception antennas modulated symbol stream through M transmission antennas from a transmitter. Therefore, it would to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time invention as made to realize that both inventions used to perform transmitting signal in mobile communication system. It has been held that the omission an element and its function is an obvious expedient if the remaining elements perform the same function as before. In re Karlson, 136 USPQ 184 (CCPA). Also note Ex parte Rainu, 168 USPQ 375 (Bd.App.1969); omission of a reference element whose function is not needed would be obvious to one skilled in the art.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 4-9, 13-18, 22-28, 32-37 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
